I have enjoyed being in H.R. with you this year.
I am sure we can have just as much fun next year.
Maybe we will have some classes together next year and you can put ticks in my desk. I hope you have a nice summer. Love,
Ann Sullivan

Dear Fred,

We have really had some swell times in not going to get serious with you

'cause you're not

Love,
Janice

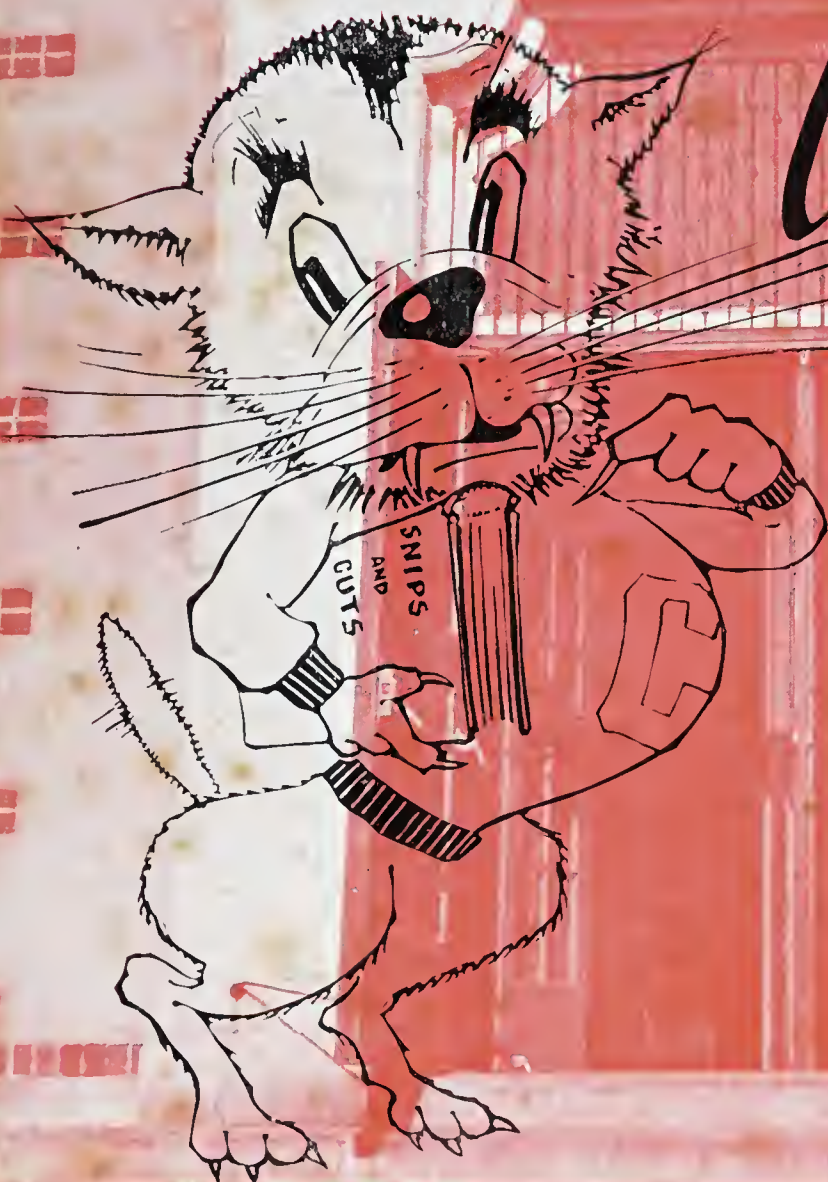

Fred,

This has been one great year and you helped make it so. You're one of the finest boys here at C.H.S. and I'm glad I decided to come over here. I've really enjoyed it. May you always have the best of everything you really deserve

"Do you mean to say that I have to cram this whole big school with 1200 Kats, 60 Keepers, and 73 Kapers, into these 160 pages of the 1954 Snips and Cuts?"

Dear Fred,

It has really been swell knowing another great sax player such as I am.

Fred,

When I think of the times we've had! They were great. Really going to miss you next year.
Hope we can get together and have a jam session.
Best to a fine boy.

Fred,

We really have had a good

OF COURSE YOU'RE COMING TO DUKE.
FAIRLY SERIOUSLY - YOU'RE THE FUNNIEST

dedication

We dedicate this the 1954 SNIPS AND CUTS to a teacher here at Central who has worked hard for this class. She very seldom gets in the spotlight because she is so busy working in the background. Her door is always open for us to come in and talk over our problems. Have you noticed what a wonderful senior class this has been and what fine assembly programs have been presented? Do you recall the huge Red Cross Drive this year? She's the one behind it all! Yes, the teacher who has meant so much to this class—and to Central—is the one to whom we wish to dedicate this 1954 SNIPS AND CUTS. She is Miss LOUISE HUTCHISON.

the season

The 1953-54 Central High School Wildcats found the going rough through a mediocre football season, but showed hustle and determination in their six wins and four losses. Henry Madden and Bill Ball again coached the speedy split-T attack with able assistance from former head coach and defensive wizard, George Sparger.

Forgetting pre-game predictions, the Wildcats upset Chester Cyclones from Chester, S. C., and continued by bumping off Tech High, also by a large margin.

The 'Cats tasted defeat in their first conference tilt with Greensboro, but they rebounded in fine fashion by dumping Salisbury and Gastonia in succession. Asheville also tasted defeat at the hands of the Wildcat eleven, which performed before their homecoming crowd.

Defeat again met Madden's Men with a heavy High Point squad turning the tide. The 'Cats then squeaked by the Burlington Bulldogs.

The next game found Winston-Salem Reynolds beating the Wildcats in the snow at Reynolds.

For the second straight year the Central Wildcats fell before the hoofs of the Harding Rams for the City Title.

Although the Wildcat team did not win honors as a whole, many of the players gained individual praise at the season's end. Johnny Thomason, a pile driving fullback, was voted to the All-State, All-Conference, All-Mecklenburg County teams. His hard running (which kept the Wildcat attack alive all season) was enough to merit him a berth on the Shrine squad, along with quarterback Ed Myers.

Guard Bob Burris, played with injuries all season, found time to perform well enough to reap honors for his City and Conference play. He and Thomason were elected to play in the East-West game in Greensboro also. Center-linebacker Neil Jones, a hustler all year, found a first string berth on the All-Mecklenburg team, to round out individual honors for the 53-54 Wildcats.

Graduating seniors who performed outstandingly all season were co-captains Johnny Thomason and Alton Widenhouse; Guy Soule, Larry Fowler, Bill Powell, Harold Reames, Neil Jones, Carson McClain, Jack Campbell, Ed Myers, Bobby Burris, Max Evans, Bobby Wells, Tommy West, Rickey Pope, Joe Broadway, Albert Bobbitt, Herbie McKinnell, Jimmy Weller, Donald Nance.

Third row: Eddie Scott, John Britt, Angelo Stassinis, Jon Bass, Donnie Graham, Teddy Alexander, Bob Ferrell, Pruitt Carter, Eddie Parramore, Pee Wee Williams.

The Wildcat 1953-54 basketball campaign brought many honors and records to Central without winning a championship title. Co-Captains Ed Berryhill and Carson McClain reaped nearly every honor in the state for their fine court performances.

Ed took the berth on the All-State squad which Carson held in his junior year, but both boys placed on the All-Conference teams. They were also selected to play in the first annual Kiwanis Classic. Ed co-captained the North Carolina team and also received the Best Sport trophy in the Classic. To add to his collection he was given the Most Valuable Player award by his Central teammates, he was selected as the best prep cager in the Class AAA State tournament as well as being the tournament's high scorer, and was selected to play in the East-West Classic in Greensboro.

These two boys were not alone in achieving the Wildcats fine 18-5 record. Centers Bill Mason and Bradford Mills turned in good performances throughout the year as did forwards Freddie Castles, Don Millen, and Pat Sarsfield. Five guards shared the outside spotlight for Coach Irv Edleman's cagers. They were Tom Hasty, Tommy Hurt, Alton Widenhouse, Jack Campbell, and Tommy Graham, a junior.

Managers Bob Virnelson and Tommy Hutchinson are to be congratulated for their fine work and spirit throughout the basketball season also.

Coach Edleman, in his first two years as the Wildcat Mentor, has brought many honors and records to the Central halls. His fine work and interest has been very well recognized by the student body.

the commencing

Each one has bold sharp edges on the base
That he has set to build his living on.
And in defiance of conformity,
He claims each jutting angle as his own.

He wishes not to differ with his kind,
But elders' set traditions chafe his wings;
He wants to be a part of life that soars—
Of life that dreams, and does, and life that sings.

The outline of that base pray God to soften,
By some part added here, subtracted there,
So that the whole be separate and distinct,
Yet—part of all that's best and all that's fair:

Pray each man be not worn to dreary sameness
With every other being placed on earth;
But let his nature, different from all,
Work well with all, that each best proves his worth.

prophecy

With a sincere intent for this prophecy to be as feasible as possible, we must confess that we have not met with any concrete ways of catapulting the reader into the twenty-first century. Therefore, after comprising all the information essential for the successful prognosticator we shall predict. We shall predict simply and with our every intent to be centered on accuracy.

1. Herb Jacobwitz will come up with a bomb that will simultaneously obliterate Australia, Harding, and the Detention Hall.
2. Max Evans will reach some sort of fame from the unveiling of a statue of him making a statue of him making a statue.
3. You might look for Diana Carpenter's making a mistake sometime in the next fifty years, but don't count on it.
4. Johnny Thomason and Jack Campbell will be rolling in the cash due to their very exclusive restaurant, the El Ramblero, located on the beautiful Elizabeth Boulevard overlooking the ever-nostalgic Sugar Brook.
5. Joe Riggs will catch the chicken-pox.
6. Judy Anderson will make a smash hit in Peking, China, by singing "Water Can't Quench the Fire of Love" in seventeen various Chinese dialects.
7. Joe Broadway will be rolling in the pecuniary rewarding as a result of his job of thinking up new sports for "Cowboy" McLain and his cohort, Ed Berryhill, to be the best in.
8. Alma Burton will still be getting prettier.
9. Bonson Hobson and Robert Dodge will make a safari to Africa and be lost for twenty years. We are not sure about this, but it seems like something that they would do.
10. Jane Hoke and Carolyn Minogue will still be beseeching innocent prophets trying to get their name in the prophecy.
11. Watch out for Jackie Hart getting married someday to Bill Powell. She'll probably be out at the river "Trolling" and Bill will walk along.
12. Nellie and Sophie Leventis will meet somebody who won't accuse them of being sisters.
13. Warren "Scoop" Sparrow will throw over newspapering and go into the comic book business. Probably will come through with a series on "Captain Spook," the new hero of all the kids who terrorizes the underworld with a mysterious, wonderful, green Jeep. Bill Mason will modestly sit in the background and make money.
14. Charles Mateer will suddenly grow two more feet (I mean up, not what you're thinking.), and beat Bradford "Shorty" Mills out for center on N. C. State's new powerhouse.
15. Margie Malone will write a book on Temperance. Mary Ran Norton will then write a book saying Margie is crazy. Jane Hammond will then follow up with a couple of volumes explaining that both of them are nuts.
16. Jerry Gaudet will catch the chicken-pox.
17. John Christman will get his Master's Degree in Solid Geometry which will do him good and help him to boot.
18. Linsy Farris's aspirations of playing first base in the Philadelphia Philharmonic will be unrealized, but he will play somewhere between second or third base, probably shortstop.
19. Unsuccessful Ed Myers will have to throw over radioing, quarter-backing, and violining, and hustle up some cash by selling autographed "Ann Sullivan" tap shoes.
20. Alton Widenhouse will have to turn out to be a dentist, since he has always insisted that he wanted a career where he would have a lot of pull.
21. As for Diggle (Ellouise), she will be responsible for starting another Civil War as a result of one of her fiery orations against Yankee girls who make eyes at boys named Bill.
22. Harry Joyner, the magic man of extremes, will be setting the world afire with his exploits towards going snow skiing in the middle of July.
23. Hard-hearted, sober-minded Dick Kirkland will be the terror of Hollywood in his capacity as a censor. Heading the long list of those who tremble at his pencil marks will be the fabulous Mary "Bubbles" Psomadakis. "Bubbles" infamous press agent, Alvin "The Snake" Selby, will have his hands tied most of the time due to his incorrigible desire to play Indian.
24. Wilson Snell will astound the commercial world with a typewriter that will write in Korean, but this will seem like hardly anything compared to Ed Turner's typewriter eraser that will erase in Korean.
25. Gav, suave, international pianist and lover Tommy Hurt will hit the headlines with his story-book runaway marriage to playgirl Betty Purvis.
26. The earth shaking book written by Andrea Stalvey is out telling of the four years she went to Clemson disguised as a young man, and how she actually played first string end beside that bruising, cunning All-American tackle Paul Patton.
27. Tom (You'll find out which one) will be the subject of a book written by a budding young authoress named Nancy Newcombe called, "What to do About Hasty."
28. Harry Neely, America's favorite, beloved horticulturist, will follow up his first book entitled, "Poison Ivy Itching is all Psychological" with a new one tabbed, "4,568 Easy Positions for Using an Egyptian Arm Scratcher."
29. George Spittle will be a rich man; Gene Van Curren will be a poor man; Jimmy Weller a beggar man; and Derek Knell could be nothing but a thief. James Clyde Dellinger will be a doctor; Frank Fraser—a dandy lawyer; and Larry Fowler shapes up as an ideal Indian Chief.
30. Jimmy Boone will catch the mumps. (He's already had the chicken-pox.)
31. Fred Barwick will change his name to Ed Barwick to Ed Jarwick to Herman Jarwick to Hamlet Oppenheimer to Fundy Finkentadt to Fred Barwig.
32. Susan Wellons will find the value of "pi" to two billion decimal places.
33. Oboe Oakley is going to invent something very wonderful, but since it is going to be a secret weapon, we can't tell you or Oboe what it is going to be.
34. We would like to predict a glittering stage career for Bette Mae Adams, but she is actually going to marry some wealthy stock broker and have six kids.
35. Every prophecy of any respect had a person who is headed for the White House. Sometimes it is a girl; sometimes a boy. In this one it's Maxine Carpenter, and if she doesn't get it, somebody is going to have to answer to you know who. (C. P.—U.N.C.)
36. Donald Nance will discover that the world is flat. Victor Brawley will crusade for this planet still conferring to the spherical standards. But it will be Fred Castles who awakens the world to the bona-fide fact that we are living on a bona-fide octahedron.
37. Dick Gilland and Charles Cunningham will be two of the most respected and well-loved businessmen in Charlotte. (We thought we would say something nice.)
38. Jeanne King will be the Foreign Minister for Redovia, a country over in Africa set up by the UN especially and exclusively for red-headed girls with the giggles.

As you certainly know there is no more accurate way known to man to predict than to use the infallible system of guessing. But now we come to the conclusion of the guessing and fall into that known as hoping. We hope for success; we hope for prosperity; but most of all we hope for happiness for the class of '54!

NEIL JONES, Prophet

last will and testament

In promulgating our esoteric cogitations and in articulating our superficial sentimentalities, we, the most exuberant and spirit-minded class in the history of Central in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-four, beware of platitudinous ponderosities. That is to say we will, for the benefit of our underclassmen, refrain from the use of five dollar words and speak as simply as possible in handing down the glorious heritage which at this time is justly theirs. Realizing that they can never quite replace their immediate predecessors, we feel obligated to leave to them some of our individual characteristics, possessions, titles, and abilities in order that they may justly carry the honored distinction of "A CENTRAL SENIOR."

So, as we men of the law say, "sees quam videri" or, translated into English "on with the business at hand":

ARTICLE I—TO THE FACULTY

Item 1—To Mr. Otts, our faithful principal, we leave our most sincere feelings of gratitude for his patience and unfailing support, but mostly, his guidance.

Item 2—To Miss Fraser, Dean of Girls and a friend to all, we leave the best Sophomore and Junior absentees in the long reign of little white cards.

Item 3—To Mr. Sanders, alias "Easy Ed," we leave with memories of one of the greatest guys it has been our pleasure to know.

Item 4—To Miss Janet Robinson, we leave our love and profound gratitude for her spiritual guidance.

Item 5—To Miss Nancy Abell we express our grateful thanks for her excellent understanding, help and advisership.

Item 6—To Mr. Neal, "Mr. Chipps," we leave our gratitude for the example he has set for us and his sincere devotion to each of us.

Item 7—To Miss Hutchison, we leave our most sincere appreciation for the wonderful leadership she has given the Senior class.

ARTICLE II—TO THE UNDERCLASSMEN

Item 1—To the Junior class we leave the finest school on the face of the earth. We leave her in strong hands; may they hold her high and respect her ideals.

Item 2—To the Sophomores we leave two more of the finest years you are yet to experience. Take advantage of every second.

ARTICLE III—TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Item 1—I, Alton Widenhouse, leave my love for Norma to no one. Which proves—"You can take it with you!"

Item 2—I, Jack V. Campbell, leave all my "honorable mentions" to Baine Martin.

Item 3—I, Barbara Raines, will my sweet smile and wonderful personality to Kay Galliher.

Item 4—I, JOHN, leave this passionate cry—"MARSHA!"

Item 5—I, Bradford Mills, leave my 6'4" monster frame to Rick McDonough in hopes he will enjoy playing under the "Irv."

Item 6—We, Joan McCall, Sophie Leventis, Jane Thornhill and Sarah Lynn Black, will our good looks and all-round personality to Ann Sullivan. (As if she needs it!)

Item 7—We, "Cowboy" Carson McLain and Edwin "Pardner" Berryhill, leave our Cecil Street ranch and six-shooters to Tommy Graham and make for the All-American open spaces.

Item 8—I, Jimmy Cook, leave "Hazel."

Item 9—I, Judy Anderson, will my beautiful voice to Don Millen so that he'll be able to make all-state in a song.

Item 10—I, Carolyn Minogue, leave my "singing" to Douglas & Sing.

Item 11—I, Al Bobbitt, being of unmatched good looks and sensational acting ability, leave even greater fortune to Ernie Prevatte.

Item 12—We, Conrad Grimes and Jimmy Boone, bestow our talents in Visual Aids to Joe Mullaney.

Item 13—I, Bobby Tribble, will my baton and wavy blond hair to one great guy, Jack Thornton.

Item 14—I, Billy "Spook" Mason, pass on my ways, so wacky, to "Hutch" in hopes he doesn't "goof."

Item 15—We, Marcia McCord and Susan Wellons, will our good taste in clothes to Ann Robinson.

Item 16—I, Neil Jones, being the finest center ever to come out of Central, bequeath my position and gridiron success to handsome Harry Timmons.

Item 17—We, the girls of the SRS, leave everyone still wondering what SRS means.

Item 18—I, Ed Myers, leave my "all-around" ability, leadership, and "No. 41" to anyone who can use a Stradivarius, say WGIV, and bark signals all at the same time.

Item 19—We, Bill Huntley and Bobby Benton, leave this battle cry echoing through Central's halls . . . "Y I ' B L E!"

Item 20—I, Diana Carpenter, bequeath my multa accomplishments and magna fame to Betty Faye Smith.

Item 21—I, Tommy Hurt, having nothing else, leave my semesters of A's, my Channel No. 5 shoes, and position under the "Irv" to Walter Mills.

Item 22—I, Bill Powell, hoping to someday be the tallest man in the world, will my stocky frame and good looks to John "We drummers have to stick together" Lomax.

Item 23—I, Joe Riggs, leave my sincerity and hard work for the Key Club to Bill Bellows.

Item 24—We, the defenders of the golden weed, protectors of the effect of nicotine, leave in a cloud of smoke and a hearty "Hiho. Chesterfields!"

Item 25—I, Maxine Carpenter, will my cheerleader sweater, all-around sweetness and friendliness to Ruth Ann Cliff.

Item 26—I, Derek Knell, leave four wonderful years of play-making, cheerleading, clowning, and all-around behavior to Ernie Prevatte, who has done quite well in having his name recorded twice in this document.

Item 27—We, Carolyn Brakefield, Jackie Pickard and Millie Fogel, bequeath our knitting needles and yarn to Bari King. May she knit in peace.

Item 28—I, Jackie Hart, leave my "easy-to-look-at" face, yelpings for the cause, and wonderful personality to any Junior girl with enough intestinal fortitude to comprehend my example.

Item 29—I, Johnny Thomason, having done little or nothing at Central, leave my trophy case, Presidential seats and good looks to Donnie Nance.

Item 30—I, Dickie Gilland, leave my vitality and friendliness to Larry Powell.

Item 31—I, Bobby Gregg, for the safety of all rising Senior girls, take my cute smile and abundant knowledge and slowly fade away.

Item 32—I, Freddie Castles, leave my cashmere sweatshirts and autographed picture of King Farouk to Pat Sarsfield.

Item 33—I, Donald Nance, leave my hopes of becoming all-state and abundant size to a fellow who should get "Biggest All-around," Jimmy Richardson.

Item 34—I, Marie Beatty, leave my sweetness to Sister Pat.

Item 35—I, Guy Soule, blow, git, vamoos, absquatulate. In other words, leave.

In closing, we would like to leave these final words. Good-bye, Central. So long, friend. Thank you, lady, for taking our hand. Thank you for showing us new friends. Thank you for laughter . . . thank you for thrills . . . thank you for teaching us. And by the way, thank you so much for letting us love . . . letting us love you, O Central.

Signed, sealed, and published, as the last will and testament of the Senior Class of Central High School, February 26, 1954.

class history

Footprints are tattle tales. They tell where you've been and point toward where you're going. When they talk, your secrets are out. They cannot be erased for they are indelible. Only you can follow them.

Where have your footprints led since you first entered Central?

The page begins where someone stood, his feet together. Let's fill in the rest of the picture. These prints belong to us, as sophomores. We were pretty big stuff at junior high but at that moment standing in front of Central we weren't so sure. We stood looking at Central wondering what part she would play in our futures.

And so the footprints move. . . .

As sophomores our feet and minds moved slowly, awed by the sudden step-down from ninth-grade glory to sophomore insignificance. We knew little and soon found it out as we submitted ourselves to Central. Instead of the conflict we expected, A. G.'eans and Piedmonters met and walked in step as Centralites toward a common goal.

Our first and second semester presidents, Alton Widenhouse and Ed Myers, assisted by Joe Riggs, Anita Ledbetter, Ellouise Diggle, Judy Anderson, Betsy Villas, and Jake Barnhardt led us well during our crucial year. We remember the square dance in our socks on the new gym floor, the win over Harding on Thanksgiving Day, the faculty play, "The Male Animal," the Honesty campaign. Our memories are hazy about those days for then our minds dwelt on higher thoughts—those of being a junior.

Summer flew and in September we found ourselves smiling at those "awful young" sophomores who waited outside the auditorium as we "upperclassmen" walked by, acutely aware of our new status. The willow's arms waved gaily at us for we came, saw, and conquered the elements and were carefree juniors without the self-conscious concerns of sophomores or the responsibilities and decisions of seniors.

We were in for the time of our lives! We watched the Wildcats romp to second place in the Western AAA conference sparked by All-city and state scrappers, Dickie Mattison and Bill Bullard. The basketball team placed first in the Western AAA conference while in the spring the track team pulled down third rating in the state giving Central an outstanding year in athletics.

Buck Criffin, Claude Plumlee, Vernon Hunter, and Ed Myers led the Student Council first semester. They were followed by second semester officers Vernon Hunter, Dick Buckey, Helen Patterson, and Tom Ray. Under these leaders we adopted a new constitution and instituted the traffic program.

Organizations went on a money making spree. The Rambler sponsored the Sock Hop and the Carnival. The P.T.A.'s Hi-Larities and the Faculty Auction made their goals. The Dramatics department drew record crowds to "Junior Miss," "We Shook the Family Tree," "Charley's Aunt," "Caucasian Chalk Circle," and the operetta, "Yeomen of the Guard," drew city-wide acclaim.

That was election year. Eisenhower accepted Central's hospitality and the student body had a giant pep rally combining the Republicans' cause and the Wildcats' encounter that night.

We looked on at Honors and Awards Day anticipating another such occasion when members of our class might ride into the Armory on motorcycles. We played the unsung heroes and put on the Junior-Senior with Stardust as our theme waiting for the day when we might be the honorees.

When graduation night came we hardly knew whether to cry for the seniors or to laugh for ourselves. Now we were the seniors!

All summer we tried to convince ourselves that we were on top, that we were now the leaders of Central High School. We couldn't realize that those to whom we'd looked for leadership last year were gone. Reality hit us soon enough. All their old jobs fell on us. We tried to fill their shoes, and continue the work they began.

Taking the helm of the senior class, Johnny Thomason, Max Evans, Jake Barnhardt, and Sophie Leventis steered competently through the first semester as did Student Council officers Ed Myers, Bobby Gregg, Betty Faye Smith, and Ann Cook.

Activities filled the calendar. After the Hi-Larities and College Day came the Fall and Christmas dances, the "girls, now's-your-chance" Sadie Hawkins Dance, the dramatics productions, "Arsenic and Old Lace," "The Great Big Doorstep," and the combined efforts of the music, art, and dramatics departments for the operetta, "Trial by Jury."

In athletics the football team coached by Hank Madden won fourth place in the Western AAA conference and hoisted Johnny Thomason who was named as All-city and state back. Edelman's cagers sparked by veterans, Carson McClain and Edwin Berryhill, led Central on a sensational winning streak.

The publications staffs worked round the clock to get the Rambler in our hands on time and the SNIPS AND CUTS out for signing in the spring.

Second semester the "Big Orange," the "Rebelettes," and the "No-name" parties vied for Student Council offices. The winners were Max Evans, Alton Widenhouse, Tommy Craham, and Chuck Harkey. The class of 1954 had its share of celebrities which include Sophie Leventis, Carrousel Queen, Sara Lynn Black, Homecoming Queen, D. A. R. Citizenship Award winner Diana Carpenter, and Miss High Miss, Mary Ran Norton. Barry Clark walked off with top honors in the school and city-wide "I Speak for Democracy" contest.

Memories which will long linger are thoughts of the annual May migration to the beach, the Key Club busses leaving for out-of-town trips, luggage-laden Bible Clubbers en route to retreats at Kings Mountain, bulging Duke Power busses, results rival school's spirit portrayed with a green paint brush at the school's side entrance, pep rallies and bonfires on the track at night, rhythmic chants of "Beat Harding" resounding throughout the halls. Our class has the honor of such memories of two snows during our residence at Central and the renovation of the Maid.

Yes, our footprints have covered much territory since our sophomore year, more than we'd imagined. They show the joys of high school, the happiest days of our lives.

They look back on the friends we've made and hope to keep, the fun we've had and want to continue, the blue Mondays and glorious Fridays, the hard work and excitement of frantic days and nights filled with laughter and good clean fun. This we remember as the height of happiness, our high school days.

But feet were made to go forward, so we must look for new horizons, saving a special place in our memories for Central and the class of '54.

—STOCKS and BONDS— WHY HAVE A BARE CUPBOARD

Old Mother Hubbard wanted some stocks
Bare were her cupboard and safety box.
She wondered then from whom to buy,
Who was the dealer or broker she should try.
You can bet your shirt she didn't go
To the firm whose name she didn't know.
She went to one both smart and wise
Who knew enough to advertise.

EDUCATED NOW?

To be sure you are, with a prized diploma to show for it! Congratulations on all those tests you've successfully passed.

Now life is going to give you the supreme test of thinking for yourself. You'll hear that the political planners can manage everything for you, and give you a "secure" life. If you think that one through clearly, you will see that the most secure people you could find are the ones in jail.

You'll probably hear more about your "rights" than you do about your responsibility. Yet your teachers have warned you that every right carries with it an obligation equal or greater.

PATRONIZING OUR ADVERTISERS

Fred,
 you've driven me crazy,
 you've teased me to death,
 you've embarrassed me
 every time you've seen me, but for some reason, I think you're great. I know you'll go far, not only here at wonderful old C. H. S., but at whatever you attempt in the future. Best of luck to you in the future, & please don't forget me.
 God bless you, Fred.

Sincerely,
 Jane Aoke

Fred,
 you are a great leader. Have at C.H.S.: you have had many honors and you really deserved them all. I have enjoyed knowing you and I hope we will have as good times next year as we have had this year. Good luck,
 Disney Cornwell

Working TOGETHER...

Working together is the theme of the OBSERVER PRINTING HOUSE publications department. We cannot do our best work without your assistance—you cannot expect to get the best results from your efforts without willing assistance and coöperation from your printer.

Fred,
 It has been great knowing you at Central. I hope to see you next year. Best of luck next year.

 AND LASTING RECORDS OF YOUR YEARS IN SCHOOL—

Fred,
I hope you're in a good mood, we don't know each other very well, but maybe next year we'll be in the classroom together. - I hope that you are a very nice boy, if a little bit crazy. - Truly hope you find loads of happiness in the year you spend with your friends this coming year. - Love, Johnnie Barber

Dear Fred,
I have

Dear Fred,
It's hard to tell you just how much I think of you.
We have had some great times together and next year I hope we have many more. Fred, it would take a list of words to describe you so I'll just sum it up by saying, you're "tops". I'm sure we'll see each other this summer and if you ever need breakfast cooked for you, just call me. That was really fun. Just stay the same sweet boy you are now and you'll really go places. Loads of luck to a person I'll never forget. Love,
Johnnie Barber

we sure have had a good time this year with all our antics, sayings, and such. Be thinking of things to do next year to amuse the school.
It would take many pages to say what I want so I want say it "THAT IS ALL"

LOAM

Fred,

It sure has been great knowing you this year.
You are really one fine
boy. The best of luck to you. You are a funny boy. Keep up the good work next year.

Love always,
Barbara Raines

Dear Fred,

You keep Central rolling next year with your corny jokes! No, really, it has been fun being in S.R. with you.
All the luck in the world!

Fred, enjoyed knowing you this year. We have had some good times in English
if we didn't learn anything, at least I didn't. I think you are a fine boy. See you next year.
Love
Betty

Senator!

It is with a great pleasure that I recall the year of frivolity made stark reality by one Fred McIntyre, one of Central's outstanding philosophers. Truly, Fred, you're the greatest.
My sincerest hopes for your brilliant future;
H. Warren Sparrow

hey! YOU HAVE

Fred,
We've known each other since the ninth grade, there have been some good times and some bad ones too, but all in all it's been fun.
You a really a fine boy and good friend.
Best wishes always
